

BEYOND TAX FILING: HOW A CPA CAN HELP YOUR SMALL BUSINESS IN 2022

By: Rohit Arora, Forbes

With 2021 coming to an end, the tax season will soon begin. Small business owners will make their appointments to meet with CPAs to work on and submit their tax returns. Naturally, a good accountant will be able to file on time and do their best to lower their clients' tax exposure and avoid audits. They also create financial reports at the end of the year and provide advice on estimated tax payments that should make during the year.

However, a great accountant can do much more than that. After all, he or she knows better than anyone just how successful a business is and, in many cases what a business can do better, including ways to boost revenue and cut costs, improve cash flow, manage inventory, and secure small business financing.

C.I.D. Inspections LLC is a self-certified, minority- and woman-owned small business headquartered in Waldorf, MD. The company's vision is to continue to grow within the commercial inspection industry. C.I.D. Inspections conducts commercial bank inspections in multifamily homes, retail establishments, office buildings, hospitality properties, healthcare properties, and self-storage facilities.

The company also conducts HUD REAC inspections in Section 8 housing, public housing, HUD-insured multifamily housing, and other HUD assisted housing. These inspections evaluate the conditions of the property to ensure the residents' living conditions are decent, safe, and sanitary. Additionally, C.I.D. Inspections conducts Fannie Mae Green Rewards inspections in multifamily properties. These inspections consist of evaluating and confirming the installation of basic energy and water efficiency measures, such as low-flow water fixtures and LED lighting upgrades.

TURNER PSYCHOLOGICAL COUNSELING, LLC

Turner Psychological Counseling, LLC was created in 2016 and established as a private Behavioral Health practice. TPC is committed to providing a safe and empathic atmosphere where you can process your most uncomfortable emotions that may be keeping you emotionally stagnate in your life. As the sole proprietor, I hold a 34-year extensive professional background in social services and behavioral health that include areas of, child protective services, family preservation, substance, gambling addiction and mental health, and administration.

My professional education and training have afforded me the opportunity to incorporate a non-judgmental and clinical approach to working with individuals from various backgrounds and circumstances. I provide individualized treatment approaches and treatment planning. I work with the individual to assist him/her in working through issues such as, but not limited to anxiety, depression, life stressors and gambling addiction. As an Approved Clinical Supervisor by the State of Maryland, I provide individualized supervision to those who currently have a LGPC license in Maryland or the District of Columbia.
